The Eurostar logo features a stylized white wave graphic above the word "eurostar" in a lowercase, sans-serif font. A small yellow star with a trademark symbol is positioned above the letter 'a'.

Wake up and smell the moules frites!

Belgium has much more to offer than its national dish of mussels and chips; it's hip, happening and full of quirky things to do. Plus, it's got more Michelin-starred restaurants per head than any other European city. All in all, it is a perfect destination for groups; whether it's to reward your team for their hard work, or to get them inspired for your next big business idea while soaking up the atmosphere in the magnificent Grand Place.

The perfect day...

Your group arrives relaxed and raring to go. Check in at the Group Welcome Desk and make your way to Le Petit Salon, the luxurious business lounge, which can be reserved exclusively for your group.

Lead the way to your dedicated carriage (or dedicated chartered train if your group is big enough) personalised with your company logo and colours for maximum impact.

On board, in our exclusive Group Select carriages, your group can sit back, relax and indulge in a delicious three-course meal with a selection of fine wines and a glass of bubbly.

Everyone's sat together so you can break the ice before you arrive. After all, the best way to get to know Janine from the Bristol team is to have a good old natter away from the office.

And if you choose Group Standard, we can arrange goodie bags, packed with snacks, to keep hunger at bay during the speedy 2h15 journey.

You'll all arrive together, happy and relaxed, so you can easily check in to one of the many centrally located five-star hotels (at a competitive group rate!) and get ready to take advantage of everything Brussels has to offer.

Let's do business

Chances are, if you're not meeting in your hotel, your first port of call will be the triangular-shaped Brussels Expo for your meeting, conference or exhibition. The beauty of Brussels is that it has a huge choice of suitable spaces to accommodate all your business needs, from stunning art deco halls to state-of-the-art conference centres.

Shop 'til you drop

Brussels is a haven for shopaholics, bursting with designer boutiques and quirky market stalls. Take your group on a shopping spree around the fashion districts of avenue Louise and rue Antoine Dansaert, or discover the antique shops in place du Jeu de Balle, and you'll soon see why.

Indulge your group's sweet tooth

The Belgians have perfected the art of making rich, chocolatey treats (taste the offerings from Godiva or Marcolini and you'll be hooked!). You could even organise a day of chocolate-making for your group.

And kick back with a well earned drink

There are over 700 different varieties of beer – if you charter a whole train, that's a different one for each delegate! And they range from the popular Hoegaarden to more obscure kinds brewed by Trappist monks (yes, really!). Visit a cellar and organise a guided tasting; just don't plan to do any work afterwards!
